GRIFFITH FOODS SELLS INNOVA FLAVORS TO SYNERGY FLAVORS

Over the past several months, Griffith Foods has been evaluating strategic options for flavors within our portfolio, and, as a result, Griffith Foods is announcing today the sale of Innova Flavors to Synergy Flavors, Inc.

Synergy Flavors, Inc., a leading supplier of flavors, extracts and essences is a member of the Irish-based Carbery Group, an international food ingredients and cheese company. Synergy creates innovative flavors and taste solutions in a full range of natural, artificial, and organic designations for growing food and beverage manufacturers worldwide. In addition to multiple locations in the US, Synergy has production, R&D and technical facilities in Ireland, UK, Italy, Thailand, Indonesia, and Brazil.

Griffith Foods is a product development partner to the global food industry, developing and manufacturing customized food ingredient solutions guided by our Purpose to “Blend Care and Creativity to Nourish the World”. Griffith Foods’ product capabilities include seasonings, coatings, sauces and dressings that are blended to exacting specification to be delicious, nutritious, and healthy for people and the planet. Founded in 1919 and headquartered in Alsip, Illinois USA, Griffith Foods has grown and expanded globally with operations in over 40 countries.

Griffith Foods and Synergy are committed to a smooth transition for all stakeholders, including our customers and suppliers.
